PRICE THREE CENTS

MINE CONSPIRACY TRIAL OPENS

226 Operators, Union Head Face Indictments at Indianapolis

CRIMINAL PLOT IS CHARGED

Accused of Causing Coal Shortage, Boosting Prices

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — (By Associated Press) — Counsel for the defense in the soft coal conspiracy case involving 226 operators, miners and corporations in six states, went into federal court here today, prepared to begin a legal battle against the indictment, charging a criminal partnership to increase coal prices.

Various motions, including that to quash the indictment, charging a criminal partnership to increase coal prices, were made.

Various motions, including that to quash the indictment, charging a criminal partnership to increase coal prices, were made.

This was the day set for the arraignment of the defendants, but only those living in Indiana, and the miners in Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania have been arrested and brought within the jurisdiction of the federal court for this state.

Fights against removal to the court here is being made by other defendants, who were not present in court today. In their absence and pending the settlement of the legal battles, no pleas to the indictment were to be entered today.

Judge Ferdinand Geiger, of Milwaukee, presided in court in the absence of Judge A. B. Anderson, who is sick, and the arguments on the motions attacking the indictment would be taken up later.

PERSONS INDICTED
Among the individual defendants are John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers of America; D. B. Wentz, president of the National Coal Association, many others of both organizations and some of the most prominent operators in the country.

The miners officials under indictment number 33, the operators, the tailors and their employees 28; the corporate defendants 65. The defendants reside in six states—Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Taken as a whole the indictments charge: First, restraint of trade; second, restraint of commerce; third, restraint of trade and commerce; fourth, conspiracy to monopolize and fifth monopolization.

THE INDICTMENT

The indictment is estimated to contain 50,000 words, one paragraph of which says: "That at various joint conferences, miners and operators agreed and arranged that they were parties to the mining, production and distribution of bituminous coal in several states, and that they should and would aid and assist each other in their plans and efforts to increase wages, increase prices, create shortage and limit production and distribution; that bituminous coal should NOT be sold at any time for a price that did not at the time yield a profit to the operators; that whatever increase of wages of miners should be agreed upon, should be added to the price of coal; that competition among operators should be eliminated by organization among operators and such other methods and means as would be effective; that the means of increasing the cost of production and the price of coal was by closing down and keeping idle the coal mines."

The indictment also attacks the famous "check-off" system of paying union dues of miners by which the operators virtually act as a collecting agency of the union by withholding part of the miners' wages and paying this to the union.

The 1920 coal shortage, according to the indictment was manufactured by the operators "as a part of the general plan of conspiracy."

BORDER GUARDED

Spread of Mexican Clash to U. S. is Feared

NOGALES, Ariz. — (By Associated Press) — The twenty-fifth United States infantry today was guarding closely the international border here to prevent spreading to the American side disorders which broke out in Nogales, Sonora, just across the line, last night.

The trouble was precipitated by the arrival at Nogales, Sonora, of 15 Chinese and two Hindu laborers, from Hong Kong. China, officials stated. The foreigners were being shipped in bond from San Francisco. Five Chinese were badly hurt, three of whom may die, a physician attending them at the Nogales, Sonora hospital, said last night.

Acting American Consular Agent Charles Daugherty said that the situation was well in hand in a statement issued shortly before midnight last night.

VALPARAISO HEAD WHO HURLED 'RED' CHARGES, RESIGNED

Daniel Russell Hodgdon, the former president of Valparaiso University who resigned recently because he charged the Indian institution "was a hotbed of bolshevism, communism and other evils." Hodgdon's charge followed the statement of one of the students that the professor was trying to make "the poor man's Harvard," a "rich man's Harvard" by payments to students prominent in athletics.

PUBLICITY URGED BY DOCTOR

Secrecy Attacked at Ohio Medical Convention

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Tearing away of the time-honored veil of secrecy which surrounds the medical profession, and the utilization of the newspapers for the "dissemination of medical truths," was urged by Dr. Charles Lukens, Toledo, president of the Ohio State Medical Association, in an address at the opening session of the 75th annual convention of the association which began here today.

"For 24 centuries the medical profession has maintained a true Socratic indifference of the world's opinion, and has buried itself in the problems which it must solve," Dr. Lukens said. "It has shunned notoriety, avoided publicity, and even refused the press information of common interest."

The result of the situation, he asserted, is that the "quacks and cults" are moulding public opinion, unchallenged publicly by the medical profession. He advocated newspaper publicity.

Recommendations of Dr. Lukens will be considered at the general sessions of the convention, it was decided, and action taken upon them. More than 350 physicians from all over the state had registered for the convention today.

CONVICT AT LIBERTY FOR 10 YEARS. CAPTURED AND RETURNED TO PRISON

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — M. E. Jackson, a farmer sixty years old, was back in the Arkansas penitentiary today after an absence of almost ten years, during which he has been residing at his farm in Mississippi and mingling with his neighbors, who supposed Jackson, under sentence for the murder of John W. Holland, in 1911, had been pardoned.

Jackson's absence from the penitentiary was unaccounted for at the time. It was shown by the records he was made a trusty shortly after going to prison and it is presumed he left without permission and remained unmolested.

STILLMAN TRIAL MAY BE PUBLIC

Wife Now Opposed to Secret Divorce Hearings

CASE REOPENS TOMORROW

Millionaire's Mate Seeks to Win People's Opinion

NEW YORK — (By United Press) — Mrs. James A. Stillman may move thru her attorneys for a public trial when the secret hearings of her husband's divorce suit are resumed tomorrow, it was learned from an authoritative source today. According to her friends, Mrs. Stillman, in addition to resenting the publicity received by her husband's charges, despite the "secrecy" of previous hearings, feels she has a strong case both in refutation of his allegations and in support of her counter-charges and is desirous of going into open court to win public opinion.

COUNSEL HANDICAPPED
Either side may obtain a public hearing, even a jury trial, by expressing such a desire. Mrs. Stillman's counsel, it was said, are handicapped by the fact it is considered "unethical" to make such a motion after once having agreed to secret hearings—and the opposition has shown no disposition to recede from its original stand in that regard.

The secret hearings will be held at the quarters of the bar association of the city of New York, before Daniel J. Gleason, of Poughkeepsie, as referee. Mrs. Stillman will be represented by Louis S. Levy and John F. Brennan; Stillman by Cornelius J. Sullivan and Outbridge Horsey and two-year-old Guy Stillman, whose legitimacy is questioned, by John E. Mack.

HUSBAND ABROAD
Neither Mrs. Stillman nor her multi-millionaire husband will be present. She is in New York City, but he recently left for Southampton, England, on his ship Moustaki.

Representatives of Mrs. Stillman are understood to have been unable to induce all of the witnesses who testified at previous hearings to return for cross-examination, and a special commission may go to Canada to take their testimony.

WALKOUT TIES UP PRINTING

Cleveland Pressmen and Book Binders on Strike

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Eight hundred pressmen, press feeders and book binders went on strike this morning when their demands for a forty-four hour week were refused. The strike of men employed in the three crafts ties up almost completely the printing industry here as the printers themselves are on strike for the forty-four hour week.

Close to 5,000 of the 25,000 members of unions affiliated with the Building Trades Council, who struck yesterday following the refusal of their demand for a renewal of the wage contract that expired May 1, were back at work today for independent contractors, according to Charles B. Smith, business agent of the council, who said independent contractors in all branches of the building trades signed agreements continuing the old wage scale for another year.

The Building Trades Employers' Association demands the workers accept a twenty per cent wage reduction. Federal intervention in the building trades strike may come late today at a meeting of the joint conciliation board of the building industry. The board is made up of seven members of the employers and workmen's organizations.

A. L. Faulkner, local federal labor mediator, said he will lay before the board a suggestion which he hopes will bring the men back to work pending final settlement.

GIRL KILLED BY NICOTINE POISON

Mystery Surrounding Death at Los Angeles Is Solved by Autopsy—Virginia Planter Is Involved In Sensational Rumors

LOS ANGELES — (By United Press) — Official inquiry into the mysterious death of Marie Vance, pretty Glendale, Ill., girl, was started today by District Attorney Woolwine. The prosecutor gave his attention to the strange case after he had been notified by Coroner Hoffman of Chicago that an autopsy showed the girl had been killed by nicotine poison.

Miss Vance, the daughter of a prominent dentist, died here April 25. The death certificate issued gave the cause of the death as pneumonia. The body was shipped back to Chicago in a sealed casket. An autopsy disclosed there was enough nicotine poison in the girl's system to kill five persons.

BUNGALOW BOUGHT
Captain R. Lee Heath, University police station, today told authorities that he knew of the life of Miss Vance in the "honeymoon bungalow" in Hollywood. Captain Heath stated that Robert S. Lockhart, Covington, Va., planter, had purchased the bungalow for the girl.

Captain Heath's report included an interview with Mrs. Flora Deldine, aunt of the girl, who resides here.

CHARGES DENIED
"Marie was in a delicate condition before her death," Mrs. Deldine told me," said Captain Heath. "The girl underwent an operation and at the time named the man who was responsible for her condition."

Attorney Stokes, representing Lockhart, today issued the following statement: "My client is ready to face any charges that may be placed against him by proper authorities. He stands ready to meet the sensational rumors and to refute the charges which he says are utterly false."

CABINET WARNED BY HARDING

Told of Dangerous Tendency Toward Spending Money

ALARMED BY DEFICIENCY

Sends Letter to Each Member of Official Family

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — President Harding launched a drive today against what he termed the "dangerous tendency" of government departments to live beyond the means provided for them by congress and submit requests for deficiency appropriations to cover the deficit. In identical letters to cabinet members the president called attention to the fact that calls for approximately $216,000,000 in deficiency appropriations are now pending and that "the estimated deficiencies will run very much beyond that sum."

The president said he was very sure "that we can never fix ourselves firmly on a basis of economy until the departments are conducted within the provisions made by congress."

PRESIDENT'S LETTER
The full text of his letter follows: "I am in receipt of a letter from Chairman Warren of the senate committee on appropriations calling my attention to the fact that estimates now before congress call for approximately $216,000,000 of deficiency appropriations and that the estimated deficiencies will run very much beyond that sum. I do not know of any more dangerous tendency in the administration of governmental departments and I am very sure that we can never fix ourselves firmly on a basis of economy until the departments are conducted within the provisions made by congress."

"I wish you would call this matter to the attention of the various bureau chiefs so that a like situation may not be reported in future."

LETTER TO HARDING
In his letter to the president, Senator Warren gave the total of deficiency estimates now actually before congress as $215,391,288.

"There is no question," he wrote, "about estimates for strictly legal deficiencies submitted in accordance with the provisions of the law; but not all of these sums are of this character. I notice that some are for new work entirely and have no place whatsoever in deficiency bills."

"It would seem that heads of departments and government establishments and officers of the government charged with the responsibility of submission of estimates should be held to a strict accountability. Now that the war is over there seems to be little excuse for the various departments and establishments not conducting their expenditures more nearly within their appropriations."

ALLEGED PERJURER IS HELD IN LIQUOR CHARGE

CLEVELAND — A man under indictment for perjury in connection with testimony he gave as defense witness in the first trial of former Judge William H. McGannon for the murder of Harold C. Kagy, was arrested this morning and will be questioned by police in regard to a whiskey ring of which he is thought to be a member.

Detectives raided the indicted man's apartment and found the alleged perjurer and two men in a room containing three suitcases and two packing cases full of bottles of whiskey. A number of automobile tires and accessories were also found in the apartment.

BIGAMIST SENTENCED TO PRISON BUT TWO WIVES FIGHT FOR HIS RELEASE

ENIA — Charged with bigamy, Oscar Parker, aged 26, a former soldier at Fairfield aviation field, today was on his way to serve an indeterminate sentence at the Mansfield Reformatory despite efforts of his two wives to secure his release.

Parker, sentenced yesterday, asked the court to suspend sentence so he could return to wife No. 1, formerly Margaret Slusser, of Indianapolis, and his two-month-old baby. Judge, R. I. Godwyr refused the request.

Wife No. 2, formerly Emma Leona Tooms, of Fairfield, Ohio, broke into a fit of hysterical weeping when the request was refused. She married Parker in March of this year.

RALLY TO U.S. FLAG IS CALLED

Benson Makes Plea As Result of Shipping Strike

MAY TIE UP ALL STEAMERS

Board, Vessel Owners and Seamen in Deadlock

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — With the ship owners declining arbitration, Chairman Benson of the shipping board firmly opposed to a compromise on his fifteen per cent wage reduction order and representatives of the strikers confident that the owners "will come to terms," the controversy over seamen's wages and working conditions appeared today to be further from settlement than ever.

No further word had come from the White House concerning a mediation commission and indications were that the president was awaiting a report from Secretaries Hoover and Davis in whose hands the problem had been placed.

CONFERENCE HELD
At the department of labor it was said Secretary Davis was following his policy of talking separately with representatives of the contending factions, having conferred late yesterday with Chairman Benson and spokesmen for the unions, and it was expected these conferences would be continued today. Just what move Mr. Hoover contemplated was not indicated following the rejection last night by the steamship owners of his suggestion that the question of a wage contract be submitted to arbitration by a commission of three men, not government officials.

BENSON MAKES PLEA
Admiral Benson is announcing his opposition to a compromise said the fifteen per cent wage reduction put in effect May 1, was fully justified by economic conditions and called upon "all loyal citizens to rally to the support of their flag." He declared the board's efforts to keep its ships in operation was meeting with "gratifying success."

W. S. Brown, president of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, predicted a general tie-up of marine transportation and said he expected the ship owners "will come to terms" in a few days. Reports as to the number of ships already tied up and the number of men idle continued to be conflicting, but it was known that practically every port was affected to some extent.

TEST DUE TODAY
NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — A test of strength in the marine workers' walkout which began yesterday was expected in this port today when two big shipping board vessels with passengers, mail and freight, were due to sail for European ports.

These ships, Old North State, for London and Boulogne, and the Potomac, for Danzig, would sail on scheduled time it was said at the offices of the United States Mail Steamship Company. Union leaders declared, however, that they would remain in port. They claim that the engineers of both vessels had quit and that men to replace them had not been signed.

Of sixty ships loading here for sailings during the month, 37 are due to leave port this week, and it was predicted in union circles that the effects of the walkout be felt gradually, or with the failure of each of the ships to make its scheduled departure.

It was claimed by owners that they were having no trouble in signing seamen and firemen. They admitted, however, that filling the jobs of engineers is a more serious problem.

OHIO GIVES 67 CARS OF CORN TO CHINESE

COLUMBUS — Ohio was second among states in the Union in amount of corn furnished by farmers for famine relief in the Near East, the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation announced today. Ohio's total of 67 carloads was excelled only by Illinois with 147. It was said. A total value of 421 cars of corn, donated by American farmers, was shipped to the seaboard for trans-shipment to the famine stricken areas.

ALLIED NAVIES TO AWAIT U. S. WORD

Will Consult Washington Before Battleships Move

HUGHES SHUTS OFF BERLIN

Told to Deal Directly With Entente on Indemnity

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — The allied supreme council today decided to take no naval action against Germany without consulting the United States.

This was agreed to after a rather full discussion of the council members with Admiral Beatty of England and Admiral Grasset, of France, regarding plans for naval pressure upon Germany.

The committee of experts, at this morning's session, reported on the plan worked out concerning the guarantees to be demanded of Germany for the payment of reparations and the council will consider it this afternoon.

Occupation of the Ruhr coal basin in the event such action should become necessary was considered by the council with the military representatives of the allies.

The council then adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon. It is expected the council will finish its labors today.

EXPERTS REPORT
The council met at eleven o'clock this morning to receive the report of the financial experts who are working out details of the guarantees to be demanded of Germany for the payment of reparations, and also to hear the views of military and naval experts on the measures to be taken if Germany fails to comply with the terms of the allied ultimatum.

Besides the premiers, the foreign ministers and the finance ministers and their assistants there were present Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Wilson, General Nollet, chief of the French military mission in Berlin, Admiral Beatty, and Admiral Grasset, chief of the general staff of the French navy.

WILL CONSULT U. S.
Nine days remain for Germany to inform the extent of her intentions relative to the payment of the reparations and give guarantees for the execution of her promises. She must deal directly with the allies, it was believed here today. Charles E. Hughes, American secretary of state, was deemed to have closed "the door to Washington" in the note he sent to the German capital late last night.

Mr. Hughes suggested that the German government immediately make to the allies "clear, definite and adequate proposals which would in all respects meet its just obligations."

The sum of 6,600,000,000 pounds (normally about $32,142,000,000) was fixed yesterday as the principal of the German reparations debt. Germany will be asked to either acknowledge or repudiate this obligation by May 12. The supreme council will send its demand to Berlin thru the allied reparations commission.

ARMIES ON MOVE
Pending a reply from Berlin relative to the reparations proposals, France and Great Britain will be preparing coercive measures. Upwards of 150,000 members of the class of 1919 have been called to the French colors and dispatches from the Rhineland tell of important troop movements toward the Ruhr district, occupation of which the allies declare will follow should Berlin refuse to meet the entente terms.

Desire for American assistance in solving German problems found expression today in an article published by the London Times.

"Reappointment of American representatives," the newspaper declared, "would be welcomed by the supreme council, the reparations commission and the council of ambassadors."

The Daily News said: "With America in the picture, there would be some hope of adjustment and a temporary solution."

HUGHES' ANSWER
WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — An explanation was looked for today both from the state department and in developments at the sessions of the allied supreme council in London of the action of Secretary Hughes in informing the German government in a communication dispatched last night that the reparations counter proposals did not afford a basis for discussion acceptable to the allied governments.

The text of the communication was made public just after it had been dispatched to Loring Drexel, the American high commissioner at Berlin, for transmission to Dr. Simons, the German foreign minister. The return of the proposals were not entirely unexpected because of repeated statements that such a course might be decided upon.

PRIMARY LAW TO BE SOUGHT

Congress Will be Asked to Adopt Amendment

MOVE OF PROGRESSIVES

Ford Not to Oppose Newberry's Taking Seat

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — Republican "progressives" in the senate will appeal directly to the people to adopt a constitutional amendment giving congress control of primary campaign expenditures. A resolution proposing such an amendment will be introduced by Senator Johnson, probably today.

"The 'progressives' move is the result of the supreme court's decision yesterday in the case of Senator Newberry, eliminating that section of the federal corrupt practices act which refers to primary elections.

Johnson and other leaders of the "progressives" group including Senators Borah and Kenyon believe that to save the direct primary they will have to begin the fight all over again and are planning to go before the people to support the proposed amendment.

FORD'S ATTORNEY TALKS
WASHINGTON — No effort will be made by Henry Ford to prevent Senator Truman H. Newberry from taking his seat in the senate but Ford insists upon the senate continuing its investigation. Alfred Lucking, Detroit, chief attorney for the automobile manufacturer, said here today.

"I have no comment to make upon the Newberry decision," said Lucking, referring to the supreme court ruling which freed Newberry and all others convicted and sentenced with him in Grand Rapids, Mich., on charges of having "bought the senatorial election."

"It does not affect Mr. Ford's contest before the senate committee one reason being that he had no control or part in the criminal case. His right to present his own evidence remains intact. As heretofore, we hold ourselves in readiness to prove the charges as made."

Lucking said Newberry and others were set free on technical grounds and that they still had an opportunity to prove their "innocence in fact" before the senate sub-committee, which has been investigating the charges.

Lucking also pointed out that while the defendants were tried, convicted, and then freed under a federal statute, there remains a state law under which they still could be tried. He refused, to venture even a guess as to whether another attempt to prosecute would be made.

OLD HAT, ON LONG JAUNT, MAKES ITS APPEARANCE HERE

An old hat, bearing the shipping labels of most every city in the United States, attracted the attention of American Railway Express employees at the B. & O. railroad station Tuesday.

The old lid was almost hidden by the collection of shipping tags, and showed signs of hard travel.

One label was dated in 1919, which he believed the first tag that started the old hat on its way. It was postmarked in New York.

Short poems and the favorite sayings of a number of cities were posted on the tags.

SHE SEEKS TO BE DIVORCED SOUGHT AFTER 28 YEARS

NEW YORK — Miss Clarice Margolis-Barlight, brilliant young New York woman attorney, with offices in the heart of the financial district, has announced her candidacy for Judge of the Children's Court.

Miss Barlight first put in her application for appointment to the bench of the Children's Court, seven years ago, but the position has always been filled by a man.

Since then another New York woman has been appointed to the police bench and Miss Barlight feels that the time is opportune now to reenter her application for the work closest to her heart, and for which she feels she is best fitted—the role of guiding the little ones along the long, long road that lies ahead of each.

With her knowledge of law and her acknowledged levelness of head, friends of Miss Barlight believe she could do much for New York's swarming throngs of adolescents—for besides her head her heart is trained in the work she has chosen.

COURT IS HEARING PLUMBERS' SUIT

Claim That Heating Plant Contract is Illegal

Trial of the case of seven plumbing and heating firms of Lima against the Allen-co commissioners, occupied the attention of Judge F. C. Becker in court Tuesday.

The court will be called upon to decide whether the contract for installation of a Moline Vapor heating plant in the administration cottages, juvenile building and school house at the Children's Home, is legal.

The combined heating and plumbing companies produced evidence in an endeavor to show the contract was illegal, because there was no competitive bidding.

The heating system is patented and Williams Bros., Lima, have the exclusive right to sell the same. The petition charged this caused a monopoly and prevented competitive bidding.

Contract for the work was let February 11, 1921, for $12,957. J. R. Phillips, county auditor and Lehr E. Miller, treasurer, were made co-defendants with commissioners.

Work has been tied up since the filing of the petition April 2.

Plaintiffs are C. C. Cowles, doing business as the Lima Plumbing and Heating company; the John M. Morgan company; the Theodore G. Scheid company; George Weber and Carl Hovey, as the Elizabeth-st. Plumbing company; E. B. Jones and Thomas W. Kinn, as the Jones-Kinn company; John Scully and Terry McIntyre.

DIVORCE SOUGHT AFTER 28 YEARS

Clara Milkreit Seeks Separation From Otto A.

BITTERS FILES HIS ANSWER

Mrs. Osman Asks More Money for Child's Support

Married 28 years ago and having reared to manhood and womanhood a family of three children, Mrs. Clara Milkreit, 502 N. Jefferson-st., was in court late Monday to secure a divorce from her husband, Otto A. Milkreit.

Mrs. Milkreit charges in her petition that her husband dissipated his earnings, threatened her life and all the able to do so, refused support. She was not only forced, she says, to provide support for herself, but for her family of children, all of whom are now living with their mother. She does not know her husband's present whereabouts, it is asserted.

BITTERS MAKES ANSWER

William Bitters, answering the divorce petition of his wife, Lynetta Mae Bitters, says she left his home without cause after he had gone to his employment. When he returned, Bitters says his wife is controlling goods gone and claims his wife took $233 of their joint savings from the bank with her.

Bitters says his wife is controlling too much by her mother and grandmother in the operation of her home and that when he called at her mother's home to see her, the request was refused.

The petition recites that when he told her he could not purchase a Queen Anne dining room suite for her, until financially able, she told him she would get a divorce and marry another man. Bitters asks the court to restore half of their joint savings, the amount of $115, to him.

Mrs. Bitters, in her suit, said her husband called her such vile names as was shocking to her sensitive nature. She charges he ordered her to leave on March 12, last, and take the furniture, threatening her bodily injury. The couple were married in Newport, Ky., April 4, 1919, and have no children.

SEEKS MORE MONEY

Mrs. Bessie Osman has filed a motion in court asking that the support of her child, Vera, be increased from $1.50 to $5 a week, on account of increased cost of living. George W. Osman is the father of the child. The couple were divorced several years ago and Mrs. Osman was given custody of the girl.

SUPREME DICTATOR OF MOOSE LODGE SPEAKS BEFORE KIWANIS CLUB

Altho it was necessary for him to cut his address short because of his train arriving in Lima behind schedule, Darius A. Brown, supreme dictator of the Moose lodge, gave an inspiring talk before the Kiwanis club at its noon luncheon Tuesday on "Men and Women of Tomorrow."

Arrangements were made by the club to go to Findlay Tuesday evening on a special car over the Western Ohio to attend an inter-city meet of Kiwanians Tuesday night. A large number of the local members will make the trip.

F. E. Harman spoke briefly before the club on the stock issue being offered the public by the owners of the Argonne hotel. He urged the Kiwanis club to assist in keeping this a 100 per cent proposition by keeping all of the stock here. He pointed out that every cent in the magnificent structure so far is Lima capital and that all men connected with it are Lima business men.

PRIMARY LAW REPEALED BY NEW YORK ASSEMBLY

ALBANY, N. Y. — The Whitley bill, repealing the direct primary law in its application to nominations for state and judicial offices, and providing for a return to the former system of party nominating conventions for candidates for such offices, became a law today with the approval of Governor Miller.

SHORTAGE CLAIMED

Kies & Gering are attorneys for C. W. Beeler, George Rhodes and Daniel Becholdt, bondsmen for Allie Beeler, former clerk of the school board of Shawnee-tp. When, some months ago, an examination of Beeler's books and accounts, a report was filed alleging that there was a shortage.

The notes involved in the new suit began it is understood were given by Beeler and his bondsmen to indemnify the township school board, with the understanding that Beeler was to pay the notes as they fell due. Failure to do so precipitated the action on the part of the bondsmen, their attorneys say. It is their desire that it be established whether Beeler is short in his accounts and if so, in what amount.

Beeler was never charged in court with being short, altho the case was brought to the attention of the grand jury. Prosecuting Attorney Lippincott said, but was ignored by that body when Beeler and his bondsmen gave notes to the school board.

Beeler claims that if there is a shortage he did not get the money.

FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO SQUARE LOVE TRIANGLE, SENTENCED TO PRISON

AKRON — Giuseppe Sarniola, 34, who attempted to square the triangle formed when his wife arrived from Italy Friday and found him living with a second, by keeping both, was sentenced to the Canton workhouse for one year by Judge H. C. Spicer of domestic relations court today.

Sarniola was found by probation officers living with three children, one by his first wife, one the son of his second wife's first husband, and one by his second wife, in a little one room shack.

A second son by his second wife was born at dawn this morning. Judge Spicer ruled that Sarniola was living in a manner which would tend to contribute to the delinquency of the children.

Sarniola's case had been given wide publicity and it was to make an example of him that he was given so severe a sentence. Judge Spicer stated, adding that the practice of taking a second wife while the first was in Europe was becoming too common in this country.

THE BEST ADVERTISING BUY IN OHIO

A COMPARISON of the advertising rates of Ohio daily newspapers reveals the fact that The Lima News is "The Best Advertising Buy In Ohio," for the reason that the rate per inch per thousand circulation of The Lima News is lower than that offered by any other newspaper in the state. The rapidly increasing circulation is reducing this cost.

Advertising rates in The Lima News are as low PER THOUSAND as they were before the war, in spite of the fact that labor is costing twice as much and paper four times as much.

Advertisers, national or local, can not begin to cover Lima and the surrounding territory without The Lima News. That this is duly appreciated is shown by a comparison of the advertising inches for April.

RECEIVER NAMED FOR D. T. & C.

Ringling Road in Financial Straits as Ownership Changes

COUPLE RENEW THEIR VOWS

Miss Catherine Hartlieb Dies Sudden—General News

DELPHOS — (Special) — The Fort Dearborn Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago, has brought suit against the Dayton, Toledo & Chicago Railway Company, which operates between Delphos and Dayton, asking the appointment of a receiver, and the recovery of $478,478, alleged due on bonds issued by the defendant. The plaintiffs claim that other debts of the company total $200,000.

The receivership was asked by W. H. Ogborn, who recently purchased the road, of which he was general manager, from John Ringling, circus man. Ogborn has been named receiver under order of the court.

Ogborn's reason for asking the receivership is said to be a desire on his part to avoid paying certain claims named above, which were incurred by the Ringling before Ogborn purchased the road, which debts were unknown to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand H. Reinemeyer, pioneer Delphos residents, approached the altar at St. John's church Monday morning to renew the marriage vows made by them 50 years ago. They were one of the first couples to be married in St. John's church here, Rev. Father A. I. Iselt, now dead, having performed the ceremony in 1871.

The wedding march was played by a granddaughter and Rev. Fred. Rupert performing the ceremony. They were attended by the same persons who served in that capacity 50 years ago. Mr. Reinemeyer wore the same suit at the golden wedding ceremony that served him 50 years ago, of black broadcloth, in excellent condition.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at which 150 participated. Rev. Father Schmitt, Jesuit, Y. Y.; Rev. Father Schmitt, Jesuit, Y. Y.; and Rev. Frederick Rupert and Rev. Urban Burkhardt of this city, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinemeyer are the parents of eight children, all of whom are living. They have many grand and great-grandchildren. The aged couple were showered with beautiful gifts.

Miss Catherine Hartlieb, 65, pioneer resident of this city, dropped dead on the front porch of her home as she was about to unlock the door late Saturday night. She was residing with a brother, Edward, for whom she kept house and who found her shortly after her death.

John Meller, Washington-49, west of Delphos, was adjudged insane, and removed to the State Hospital for the insane, at Toledo.

Wednesday, Miss Dora Anna Wellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wellman of this city, will become the bride of Alexander M. Eicholt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eicholt, Maple Grove, Mich. Rev. Father Rupert will officiate, and a nuptial high mass will follow the ceremony.

The Okomokus baseball nine won from the Delphos Athletic team Sunday, in a hard-fought contest which marked the first game for the season for either team, 5-4.

Envoy Brings Friendship
Message to Cleveland

ADDRESSES BUSINESS MEN

Declares His Country Victim of Enemy Propaganda

CLEVELAND — (By United Press)

Japan has been the subject of a "deliberate enemy propaganda," Baron Kijuro Shidehara, Japanese ambassador to the United States, declared here today, in an address before the chamber of commerce.

The address of Baron Shidehara constituted the first public and complete discussion of American-Japanese relations he has made as ambassador at Washington.

"Between the United States and Japan, it is idle to deny that there are differences which are awaiting adjustment," the ambassador said. "There is an atmosphere which ought to be cleared up. That is a plain statement of fact which is not prejudicial to good feeling. It might truthfully be said of most states in their relations with each other."

FRIENDSHIP SOUGHT
"If there is anything wrong in the relations of Japan and America, we want to find out what the trouble is and apply the remedy. So I have come here to assure you that my government and people alike aspire to live in genuine and cordial friendship with the United States. The two nations are already linked in a community of vast material interests."

"Of still greater significance is the fact that the stability of every human institution about the shores of the Pacific ocean depends upon the harmony and good understanding between Japan and the United States. Grave responsibility rests upon our countries. Neither nation can avoid it. How can we turn from such a solemn trust to engage in selfish bickerings or to indulge in foolish recriminations?"

WILD SPECULATIONS

"And yet, we are constantly fed upon wild speculations which tend to create an atmosphere of uneasiness and tension in our mutual relationships. It is one of the unfortunate frailties of human nature that the public is more hospitable to exciting stories and sensational reports than it is to dry facts and dull sermons."

"This takes no account of certain elements in every community who are actively interested in hampering international relations. They are unscrupulous and malicious. They magnify their mole hill into a mountain and distort the most laudable intentions into crafty schemings."

"It is a well-known fact that the so-called propaganda has made rapid growth during the past few years, as an incident of war. This is a powerful weapon and when used for the dissemination of truth, tends to inspire confidence and good will between nations. Such activities, however, when set in motion with the definite purpose to deceive the public and to stir up suspicions, hatreds, and antagonisms, become a formidable tool for evil, and unfortunately Japan has been the subject of a deliberate enemy propaganda."

"One of the charges constantly brought against the Japanese is that he is not assimilable. Whether or not he can be physically assimilated, when he comes in contact with other races, is of secondary importance. What he does claim, is that when given the opportunity and the privilege, he is capable of these intellectual and spiritual assimilations which are compatible with good citizenship, dignified manhood and loyal service to the community in which he resides."

"But lest I be misunderstood as urging some action upon the American people which is distasteful to them, it is proper for me to reiterate the oft-repeated declaration of my government that Japan claims no right, nor has she in fact, any intention of sending emigrants to this country. She has held consistently to the policy of placing restrictions upon such emigration. She only asks for her nationals lawfully resident in the country that just and equitable treatment which is in line with the fine traditions of the American people. She desires nothing more, nor can she be satisfied with anything less."

"Sane and honest diplomacy, backed by sense, reason, charity and mutual accommodation, will alone lead to the lasting settlement of these problems. There is absolutely no other course."

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your drugist and get 1 ounce of Earsol, add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing becomes easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

WALKOUT IS VOTED

Northern Ohio Traction Employees to Strike Thursday

ALBION — (By United Press)—The entire system of the Northern Ohio Traction and Light Company, will be tied up Thursday morning, it was announced here today.

Representatives of all unions voted to strike. Reports were received at the local union headquarters that Canton, Mass., and other suburban towns had voted strike votes. In a meeting held Monday afternoon with traction officials, the representatives of the men offered to continue work at a rate of five cents an hour less than the present scale. The company had previously offered a 15 cent an hour cut. Company officials rejected the offer of the men.

Never Pinch Out Blackheads

Disolve Them With Necessia.

There is only one sure way to get rid of blackheads and the best remedy is Necessia. It is a powder (not a soap) that you rub on your face with a cloth moistened with water. It will dissolve the blackheads and see how they are dissolved. Necessia is original package is to be found at any drug store and a package will last for some time.

If Wrinkles Are Coming Try This Home Made Cream

The skin can be brought back to its original plumpness and vigor by the following formula. An astonishing result is the quick disappearance of wrinkles, little and big crow's feet, and lines of age. It is simple and can be prepared in a few moments, by adding to half a pint of water one tablespoonful of glycerine and two ounces of aloe, obtained from your drugist. This takes years from your appearance, and is always successful. It is its work if you will apply it liberally, every day.

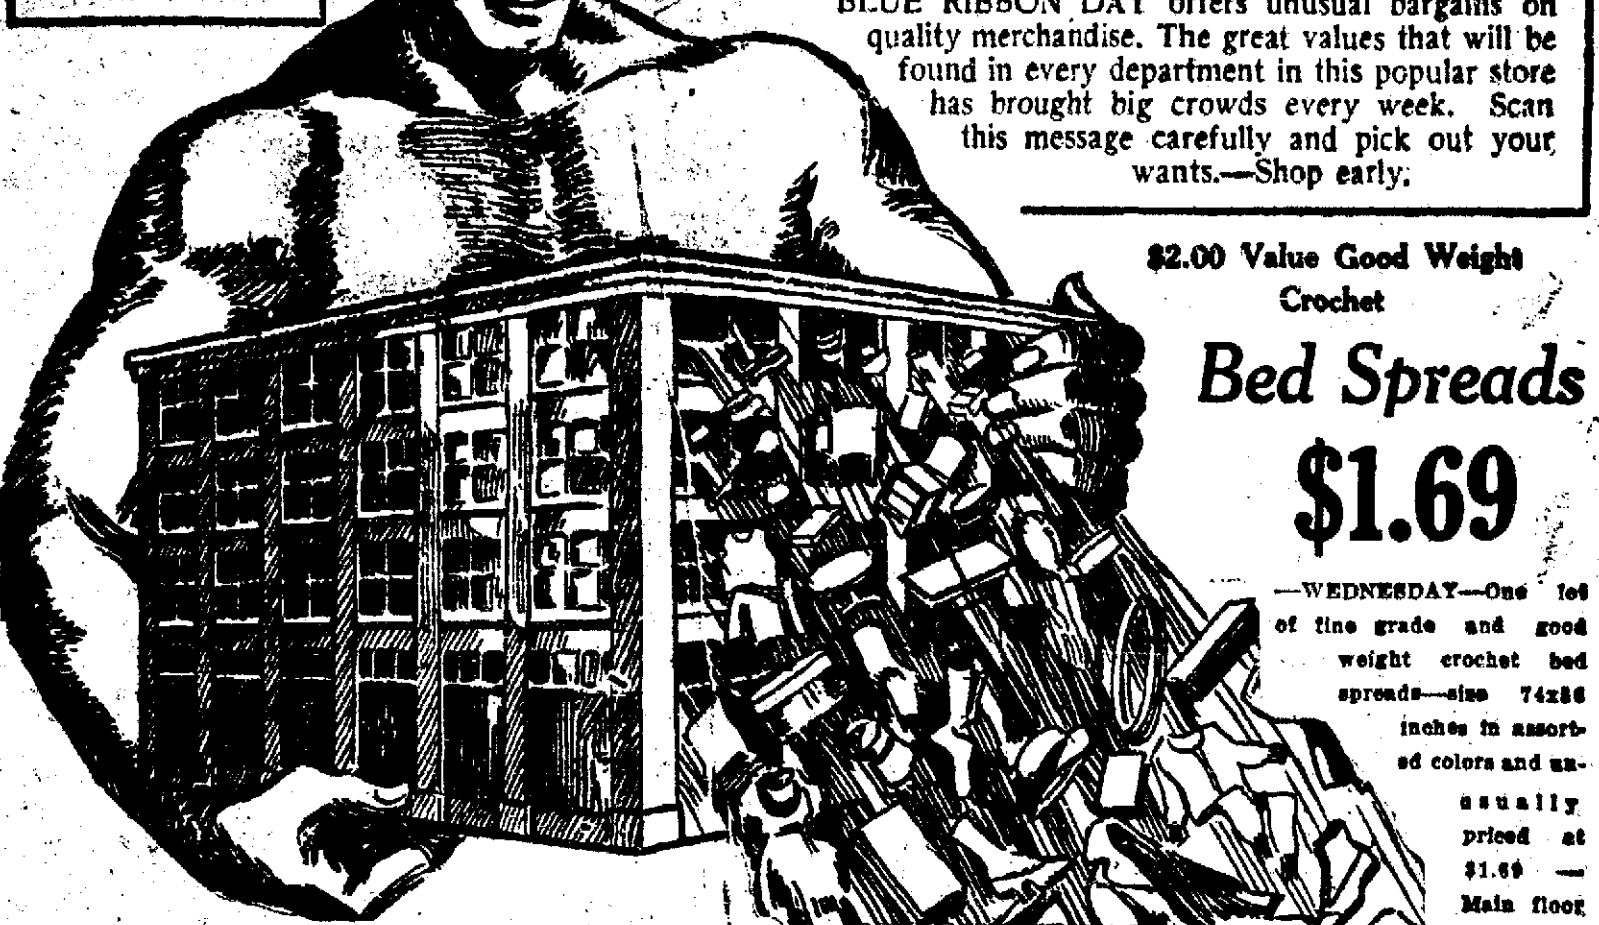

And if the Hair Is Thinning Strengthening and enlarging the roots of the hair is one of the real secrets of forcing hair to grow, something which has heretofore not been fully realized. Merely stimulating the surface tissue of the scalp will not stimulate the hair growth to the extent desired. By the new method just mentioned hair can be forced to grow several inches a month. Hair will stop falling as it by magic. The new vigor of the hair will be quickly noticed, and all bald spots will be soon entirely filled out with new growth. This can be easily obtained by the simple use of beta-nolol, which can be secured at any drug store in the original one-ounce package. This can be mixed at home with a half pint of bayrum and a half pint of water, or with witch hazel, if you prefer. It contains no oil whatever.

RICHMOND CLAIMS ARE DISPROVEN

Virginia City Did Not Have First Electric Cars

BEATEN BY LIMA TWO YEARS

Anniversary to be Celebrated on Wednesday

Lima that the first electric street railway, operated as a commercial enterprise, was started at Richmond, Virginia on May 4, 1888, has brought to light the fact that an electric street car system was in operation in Lima at an earlier date.

The date, May 4, is being celebrated throughout the country as the thirty-third anniversary of the overhead trolley system yet it is a known fact that in 1885, Scranton, Pa., installed electric railway cars and in 1886, Lima electrified its lines.

Prior to this time the car had been drawn by horses, or mules. There were two lines, one on W. Market-st. to Cole-st. and one on E. Main-st. to Wayne-st., along Wayne-st. to Central-ave. and along Central-ave. to the Pennsylvania depot. At the end of each line and at the public square were located turntables. Two cars were in operation, one on each line, and the service was generally satisfactory.

FIRST MOTORS IN LIMA.
When it was seen that electricity was to replace the horse and the mule as the motive power for street railways, H. C. Faurot, applied to council for a franchise permitting him to install motors on his cars. This was granted in 1888 and the work was accomplished during the same year.

There were very few manufacturers of motors and those who were producing them had a very small output. Faurot purchased two motors from Charles J. Van Vepole, of Chicago and installed them in cars built for him by the Pullman Palace Car Co., also of Chicago. When the new cars were placed in operation, the question of getting the power from the overhead wire to the car was an important one. The first device consisted of two overhead trolley wheels which ran on top of the wire instead of under it, as it does today. This was a very heavy device with weights attached and when it was thrown off the wire because of snow or sleet it would strike the top of the car with a resounding thud. A flexible cable carried the current to the motors.

People were not at all averse to riding in these cars. They traveled at a fair rate of speed. The fare charged was five cents.

ROUTES ESTABLISHED.
Some of the present routes were provided for by franchise as follows:

In 1882 the N. Main-st. route was authorized and in 1897 the S. Main-st. and the Kibby-st. routes were authorized. In August 1897 the S. Pine-st. and the W. Wayne-st. lines were mapped out by franchise and were installed a short time afterward.

On July 14, 1902, the Lima, Delphos, Van Wert & Ft. Wayne Traction Co. was granted the right to build a line into the city on Grand-ave. to Elizabeth-st., down Elizabeth-st. to Spring-st., along Spring-st. to Union-st. on North-st. and west on North to Elizabeth-st. This loop was provided to enable this line to get in and out of the city. It was never built, however, except on Grand-ave. arrangements were made with the street railway company whereby they were permitted to use the city lines into the center of the city.

Arrangements for the construction of the Bellefontaine-ave. line were made in 1906 and 1907. This line was primarily constructed to permit the Ohio Electric cars from Springfield to enter the city.

Much of the development of the city car system can be attributed to the interurbans. These lines desired to come into Lima and naturally the city line reached out to meet them. They were linked up very closely with each other.

TIME WORKS CHANGES.
Many things have changed today. The car barns are no longer at Cole-st. but have been moved to Grand-ave. Larger cars and the pole trolley have replaced the old equipment. Wages have gone up from around ten and eleven cents an hour to a considerably higher scale and fares also have gone from five to seven cents.

Now that the street railways are old enough to have real birthdays and the remainder of the country is celebrating 1888, Lima can pat herself on the back and have a little celebration of her own, using the year 1886 as the time of the birth of her electric driven street cars.

THOMAS MOONEY CASE.

SAN FRANCISCO.—(By United Press.) Thomas Mooney, San Francisco preparedness parade bomb defendant, appeared in court here today just long enough to hear Superior Judge Landwehr continue his case until May 21.

Mooney, proceeding under a writ "audita querela" is fighting for a new trial. Assistant District Attorney Milton I. Ron, appearing against Mooney, filed a demurrer to the action under which Mooney's case is being reopened. He alleged there was no basis for the issuance of the writ.

The continuance was granted by agreement of attorneys for both sides, who said they wanted more time for preparation.

"I am in the best of health," Mooney told newspaper men as he stood handcuffed with three men guarding him.

THEATRES ROBBED

Safes Blown Open in Three Columbus Playhouses

COLUMBUS.—(By Associated Press.) Box offices of three downtown theatres were robbed of more than $1,600 early this morning by burglars, who bound and gagged night watchman and blew open the safes. Theatres robbed were Keith's, the Colonial and the James. The same band of robbers, who is believed to have robbed Eul's pharmacy in St. Vrain.

Police will not ascertain this morning the exact amount of the loot stolen. However, Keith's theatre announced that approximately $1,000 had been obtained from their safe, and it is known that some money was obtained from the other safes.

Later, according to police reports, the robbers entered the Elks Home, where the band and gagged two negro porters while they ransacked the building. Only personal property belonging to the manager was taken.

Patrolman Clifford Tilton entered the James theatre to make a telephone report and was covered with revolvers by two of the robbers. His gun and coat were taken away from him and he was held a prisoner while the robbers attempted to blow the safes in the office.

GARAGE BURGLARIES.—C. E. Reeves, 330 N. Jameson-st., reported to police Tuesday that some time Sunday night the garage at rear of his home was entered and a spare tire taken from his automobile.

TAX REFORM HELD UP BY TARIFF MEASURES

WASHINGTON — Business men will not know until the latter part of this year what their federal taxes for 1931 will be.

Altho this uncertainty is one of the factors of business depression it was definitely determined today that notwithstanding Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's letter, congress will adhere to its "tariff first" program, with taxation revision to follow.

Representative Nicholas Longworth, Ohio, Republican leader of the movement to reform taxes first, in order to speed business stabilization, admitted that he has lost.

However, Longworth urged business interests to "discount the delay" and to begin to proceed immediately upon the assumption that applicable to 1931 business the excess profit tax will be repealed and other tax throttles on business modified.

"WHEN IS WHISKEY?"
ASKS OFFICER LANDFAIR

"Is It Hager?" City Solicitor Garling, queried, of Officer Ross Landfair in the trial of Gus Nasti, proprietor of the New Hudson Lunch, N. Main-st., which started at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning in criminal court.

"I guess so," Landfair replied. "Well, taste it and tell us," Garling said.

The defense objected, but before they had time to present their objection to the court the officer grabbed the bottle and took a swig.

"Oh, that's whiskey all right," Landfair sputtered out with a hearty laugh as he deposited the bottle on the judge's desk.

FEW ARE MOVING

No Place to Go, So They Just Stay On

Annual moving day, which falls on May 1 as a rule, but which fell on the second this year because the first was on Sunday, saw very few changes in Lima.

"There's no place to go, so they just stay where they are and feel lucky because they have a place to live," said one real estate man.

Houses are scarcer in Lima this spring than for years, it is said. There were a few moves occasioned by the purchase of property, but the usual shifting for the sake of moving or with the hope of securing a better place to live was not noticed.

FIVE CONVICTED IN AUTO STEALING PLOT

DETROIT.—The five defendants in the international automobile stealing conspiracy case were convicted today by a jury in United States district court. After being out from 4:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon, until 8:30 o'clock today, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty against James G. Burroughs, wealthy Bridgeport Conn., automobile dealer, and alleged master mind of the "crime trust," Sven Nyquist, of New York; Joseph Galbo, Douglas Moore and Earl Linn, of Detroit.

Burroughs is expected to appeal his case. The trial was in continuance for four weeks. All were given a two years sentence in Leavenworth.

OFFICE LATCH STRING HUNG OUT BY HAYS

WASHINGTON—Postmaster General Hays has hung his office latch string out in fact. The word "private" has vanished from the door and you just walk in when you want to see him. Inside you'll find a huge room with Mr. Hays at his desk in one corner and a lot of chairs scattered around. Mr. Hays will hand you his engagement list for the day and you can see for yourself how he's fixed for time, pick out your own slice of any not already appropriated and then camp in a chair across the room until your time comes. Conferences are held in sight if not within actual hearing of everybody in the room, and there is no usher, secretary, confidential clerk, messenger or other functionary to deal with.

NEW COMMISSION IS TO RECOMMEND PARK PLANS
Recommendations for a definite park program for Lima will be formulated at the meeting of the newly created park commission, to be held Wednesday night, President Frank E. Harman states.

The commission made a survey of the park possibilities in and about Lima on Sunday and has a number of sites in view which they may ask the city to acquire.

Mayor Burkhardt created the commission on the recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Harman favors large parks in each of the four corners of the city, with the ultimate establishment of a connecting boulevard system.

Lima should plan parks on the outskirts of the city now and let the future growth of the community spread toward them, the commission believes.

LIMA BOY SCOUTS MAY MAKE SUMMER CAMP AT SIMON GITY'S ISLAND

Girty's Island in the Maumee river near Defiance, used by the Indians in pioneer days as a hunting and fishing ground, is being considered as the location of a summer camp for eleven troops of Boy Scouts in Lima.

The site, comprising about 25 acres, was visited Sunday by a committee consisting of H. E. Simonton, Charles F. Maizen, J. C. Thompson, S. F. Stallsmith, scout executive and Scout Master P. A. Lawrence.

As far as is known, the island is said to be the only camp of its kind in the middle west, owned by the Boy Scouts. It was recently purchased by the Defiance council, and will be used as a camp for the five Defiance troops.

A base ball diamond, gridiron courts for basketball, tennis, croquet, a scaling wall and ample facilities for water sports are afforded by the island. A ferry connects with the mainland.

Lima scouts will probably select the island for their summer camp, but the council has at least one other site under consideration.

MANY ENTRIES IN EISTEDDFOD

School Event Here Friday to See Large Attendance

Plans are rapidly being completed for the School Eisteddfod to be held under the auspices of the West Central Ohio Music Competitive association, at the Memorial Hall, Friday.

Over 400 students from nine different high schools have entered in the contests and Lima will be visited by over 1000 high school pupils Friday. The nine schools entered in the contests are: South, Central, Van Wert, Findlay, Bluffton, Gomer, Bellefontaine, Vaughnsville and Elida.

Great interest is being taken in the contest among the Lima pupils and in other towns. Findlay and Van Wert each anticipate sending two special cars, while Gomer is counting on 200 students that have not entered in the contests to come to Lima. The rivalry promises to be close and exciting as three out of four supervisors have stated that they are certain their delegation will win the majority of the contests.

Tryouts for the Lima high schools have been held for the solos, duets and quartets. Central entries are: soprano solo, Iona Price; alto solo, Alice Beery, baritone solo, Cyril Shappell, piano solo, Luther Spayde; duet, Iona Price and Marie Weller; quartet, Iona Price, Marie Weller, Robert Pew and Cyril Shappell. Central will also enter in the girl's chorus and the recitation contest.

South entries are: soprano solo, Elizabeth Chapman, alto solo, Olive Blank, duet, Florence Niles and Ruby Rothlisberger, baritone solo, Paul Fenaff.

Both South and Central have entered in practically all events. The high schools will compete Friday night. Friday afternoon the Lima grade schools will compete. Grade schools are taking an active interest in the contests and a large number have entered for all events.

This is the first annual meeting of the music association which was recently formed, to promote competitive school music. Mark Evans is the president of the organization. Dr. Holts Dann of Cornell University will be the adjudicator of music. I. R. Longworth of Lima will be the conductor.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS TO HEAR NASH ADDRESS

The senior classes of South and Central high will be included in the audience at Memorial Hall Thursday night when Arthur Nash, of Cincinnati, tells how the success of his factory has been built up thru the years by a literal application of the golden rule. The Gramm-Bernstein club has also asked for 40 tickets.

HOUSING COMMITTEE OF C. C. NOT READY TO REPORT ITS PLAN

The Chamber of Commerce housing committee will not be ready to submit its definite plan to the Chamber directorate Wednesday, as was anticipated. For an hour and a half the committee worked over details of the holding company scheme, upon which they have centered their attention for the past couple of weeks, but with some banking and legal angles cropping out of the plan as it was being created, more time will be necessary to get the project to "hold water." While some members of the committee were in favor of passing it on to the directors for consideration, others believed that either this or some other development plan should be drawn up complete before the committee makes any such report.

Legal advice on the activities of the company will be secured prior to the next meeting of the committee, Monday afternoon of next week. Opinions of financial men outside the city will be obtained on the idea the committee has in mind, as to whether it is financially sound.

And while these opinions are being secured, a survey is being made by the committee of the new homes that are now being built and those being contemplated. A sub-committee composed of G. E. Leist, Roy W. Fletcher and C. E. Lynch, will make this survey. The committee asks that every contractor, real estate operator or private individual planning to build one or more homes this summer will give such information to one of these men this week.

HOMES IN PERIL FROM WATERS

Lake Michigan Fast Eating Away
Property at Milwaukee

FAMILIES FLEE TO SAFETY

Loss of Thousands Will be Suffered by Owners

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (Special) — The homes and property of five families on the lake shore just south of the south limits of this city are in imminent danger of toppling into the lake from the brink of a hundred foot precipice due to caving of the bank.

Covering a stretch of nearly three hundred yards on the south edge of the city, the houses and outlying buildings are being undermined as huge segments of the high bank are breaking loose and catapulting into the lake nearly a hundred feet below, till only a few feet remain between the brink and the back of the buildings.

One family has been forced to move out, leaving their household goods behind because the continued caving has made imminent the hour when the entire house will crash over the edge and disappear in the waters of Lake Michigan.

QUICKLY EATING IN
The edge of the bank on one night was twenty-one feet closer to the rear of the houses than it was when the caving began that morning.

Thousands of tons of dirt crashed down the embankment during the afternoon while women and little children stood on the back steps of their homes watching the destruction which might at any moment claim their houses and property.

The twenty or more persons whose homes are in danger of demolition are totally helpless.

Cracks showing where new portions of the bank are beginning to break loose and which are hourly getting closer to the houses which have thus far escaped damage will doubtless be the next places where the bank will break down as the continued rain softens and loosens the earth.

The property, which runs within fifty yards of and parallel to the lake shore, is said to be worth $125 the running foot.

DAMAGE IS HEAVY
This would bring the total value of the property in danger of being claimed by the lake to about $100,000.

This figure is exclusive of the value of the houses and other buildings on the lots.

Altho residents state that the bank has been eating away for many years, it has been much worse since the city of Milwaukee constructed the breakwater in the lake to the south limits of the city two years ago.

Every time there is a storm on the lake, it is claimed, the presence of the breakwater causes a whirling eddy along the shore near the end of the breakwater which has been slowly and surely wearing down the bank and washing away the land of property owners.

ANSELL CALLED IN UNDERWRITERS TO BERGDOLL CASE

Probers to Quizz Attorney As to Draft Dodger's Escape

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The house committee investigating the escape of Grover C. Bergdoll, Philadelphia draft dodger, expected to obtain additional information today regarding Bergdoll's release from Fort Jay, N. Y., for the purpose of recovering gold he claimed he had buried in the West Virginia mountains. Samuel T. Ansell, former acting adjutant general of the army and one of Bergdoll's attorneys, had been asked to appear to inform the committee of his connection with the case.

Major General Harris, adjutant general of the army, who was the first witness to be heard, declared yesterday he alone was responsible for Bergdoll's release from the disciplinary barracks so he could recover the treasure he insisted he had hidden. Gen. Harris said Mr. Ansell had appealed to him to let the prisoner out, assuring him that the draft dodger's buried gold story was true and that Bergdoll would be returned to Fort Jay as soon as he had reclaimed it.

General Harris mentioned the name of John W. Westcott of New Jersey, as one of Bergdoll's attorneys. General Harris said he had seen correspondence between Mr. Westcott and former Secretary Baker in reference to Bergdoll's appeal from the five year prison term imposed on the draft evader.

Mr. Westcott, according to General Harris, wanted the secretary to give the case his personal consideration.

ENGINEERS HERE FOR FIRST INSPECTION IN NINE YEARS

Representatives of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, New York, arrived in Lima Tuesday and will spend several weeks here, making the first survey of the city since 1912.

The party, headed by L. W. Evans, Charles W. Parsons and John Ashmead, engineers, held a conference with Mayor P. A. Burkhardt Tuesday morning. A fourth engineer, an expert on water works, will arrive here Wednesday. The party will spend some time looking over fire-fighting equipment, water supply and hydrants.

As result of their visit, Mayor Burkhardt stated that recommendations may be made to council on their findings. Council has for some time been contemplating creating the office of city electrician, who will pass on all wiring in buildings and adopting a building code. Recommendations made by the underwriters may prove of assistance along these lines, the mayor stated.

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — Strikes and lockouts now are costing workers nearly $1,000,000 daily in wages lost, it was estimated here today on the basis of reports to the labor department, which indicate that at least 100,000 men and women are unwilling to work pending the regular May negotiations with their employers over new wage scales. Employers losses were placed at approximately four times those of workers.

Secretary of Labor Davis and his 20 mediators on duty in big cities are working day and night in an effort to save industry approximately $5,000,000 a day. This is the stake which is keeping Davis at work in his office here each night until midnight.

CONFERENCE HELD.
Confronted by three major strikes at the same time, Davis is holding conferences with groups of workers and employers almost continuously.

Leaders of the marine engineers and seamen who quit work Sunday midnight, were to see Davis early today, after conferences with him all yesterday afternoon. Later in the day, Davis expected to get reports on the strike of printers in 50 cities and on the walkout of paper mill workers. In these last two strikes, Davis has not yet been asked to mediate. But he is keeping informed of the situation, to be ready if the request for arbitration should come to the department.

CONFERENCE HELD.
Confronted by three major strikes at the same time, Davis is holding conferences with groups of workers and employers almost continuously.

Leaders of the marine engineers and seamen who quit work Sunday midnight, were to see Davis early today, after conferences with him all yesterday afternoon. Later in the day, Davis expected to get reports on the strike of printers in 50 cities and on the walkout of paper mill workers. In these last two strikes, Davis has not yet been asked to mediate. But he is keeping informed of the situation, to be ready if the request for arbitration should come to the department.

REPORTS PROGRESS.

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — Strikes and lockouts now are costing workers nearly $1,000,000 daily in wages lost, it was estimated here today on the basis of reports to the labor department, which indicate that at least 100,000 men and women are unwilling to work pending the regular May negotiations with their employers over new wage scales. Employers losses were placed at approximately four times those of workers.

Secretary of Labor Davis and his 20 mediators on duty in big cities are working day and night in an effort to save industry approximately $5,000,000 a day. This is the stake which is keeping Davis at work in his office here each night until midnight.

REPORTS PROGRESS.

Davis, this morning, said he was unable to discuss the marine strike, other than to state that he was making progress with the committee of leaders which is headed by William S. Brown, president of the Marine Engineers National Benevolent Association. Davis hopes to get the strike leaders to agree on a proposal which he can lay before the employers. Until Davis becomes convinced that nothing can be accomplished thru straight mediation, it is unlikely that President Harding will name a special arbitration board as asked by the strikers. The employers have indicated their unwillingness to appear before a joint board. Officials of the United States shipping board, and ship owners and operators today said the strike thus far had had little effect.

NORTHEAST CORNER MAIN AND HIGH STREETS

The U. S. ROYAL CORD

A famous tire—a famous tread. Acknowledged among motorists and dealers alike as the world's foremost example of Cord tire building. Always delivering the same repeated economy, tire after tire, and season after season. The stripe around the sidewalls is registered as a trademark in the U.S. Pat. Office.

The Tire Situation Right Now

WITHIN the next 24 hours American car owners will buy around $2,000,000 worth of tires.

People will say that here's another picture of American buying power.

Forgetting, perhaps, that the thinking power of the average citizen is the thing to be dealt with today.

Spectacular money and runaway expense don't go with him any more.

When he sets out to buy a tire he is not interested in big sales figures, but in the one individual tire he is getting here and now.

There is a movement among tire-dealers to make tire-economy a reality to the car owner.

These dealers are handling nothing but United States Tires. Gearing-up to meet the new thrift-times.

A customer comes in and asks for, let's say, a 35 x 5 Royal Cord. His size is in stock. No waiting. No being talked into a "second-choice" make or a "job-lot".

Open good faith on both sides of the deal.

And the purchaser goes away with a fresh live tire of current manufacture.

All this is economy and service.

And there isn't any other kind of economy and service.

There are thousands of dealers right now who are concentrating on United States Tires.

Thousands more are getting ready to do the same thing.

They believe in U. S. quality, in the U. S. square policies—to the full extent that they put their whole personal investment behind what U. S. stands for.

It is a pleasure to say that these tire men are laying the corner-stone for a tire service far ahead of anything the motorist has ever known before.

Go where you find the U. S. Sign and see.

Come—Take a Fresh Grip

America and the world now face sterner necessities of constructive effort in distribution than in any previous period of business history.

Marketing is in a state of flux. New ways are crowding out the old. Fresh ideas are replacing yesterday's customs. Plan and precision are triumphing over rule o' thumb.

The advertising prizes of a changing business day will gravitate to thinking, studious men. That is why men who sell things, and who make things which must be sold, plan to attend the Great Business Class Room of 1921—the

Seventeenth Annual Convention
Associated Advertising Clubs of the World
Atlanta, June 12-16

There advertising men will take fresh grip on the business fundamentals—Faith, Integrity and Industry. They will exchange views, discuss ideas, inspire others, even while they themselves absorb inspiration.

This advertising meeting promises worth-while values to serious-minded business men. They will turn to it for guidance and counsel; they will find in it relaxation and fellowship. Join them in June.

Exhibits of Domestic and Foreign Advertising, demonstrating the use of practically all recognized mediums, and arranged solely with a view to helping the convention delegate, will be a special feature. This alone makes the trip worth while.

In June, Atlanta is at its best. High on a ridge between the Gulf and the Atlantic, fanned by cooling breezes and clad in gay summer attire, it is, as proved by United States Weather Bureau reports, a delightful place in June.

OFFICIAL DISCOURTESY

UNDER our system of elections, those seeking positions of public trust must go before the people every so often. These occasions bring forth much hand-shaking and back-slapping to say nothing of the abundant flow of blarney intended to win votes for this or that candidate.

It is necessary for candidates of both parties concerned to resort to this means—or at least they believe it is. Smith appears to be a good fellow and many vote for him, believing that if he is elected they will be able to approach him as in the pre-election days and get a cordial greeting. Jones is just as affable as Smith and for the same reason gets votes.

But after one or the other is elected, their demeanor too often changes. They set themselves up as the high and mighty and adopt as their slogan "The public be darned."

The fellows whose hands were squeezed and upon whose ears honeyed words fell when support at the polls was being solicited get the icy stare when they call upon the official, and this continues until it is time for Smith or Jones to get out and make another campaign. Then the old tactics are re-employed and the voters are "taken in" again.

Discourtesy to the public on the part of officials elected to carry out the business of the people has become a serious matter. It is a thing which would not be tolerated in a business corporation and it should not be perpetuated in public office.

Voters should take note of the treatment they get when they visit the offices of those they helped elect. They should make a mental memorandum of that treatment, not only just before election but during the incumbent's entire term, and if it does not indicate unadulterated service and a perfect willingness to cooperate with the stockholders—the voters—they should vote accordingly at the next election, regardless of party affiliation.

TERMS OF PEACE

IN modern history no other nation has ever been so heavily penalized in consequence of military defeat as Germany. She has lost Alsace-Lorraine, with its valuable deposits of iron ore; she has lost her colonies, including the Shantung concession; she has lost Danzig and a large part of West Prussia; she has lost the northern zone of Schleswig; she has lost control of the Saar Valley for 15 years; she has lost her merchant marine; she has lost her army and her navy and has lost, for the time being, at least, her economic supremacy on the Continent.

Considering the price that has already been exacted from Germany for her responsibility in beginning the war and for the manner in which the war was waged, the question of reparation is wholly relative. In spite of the efforts to make it appear that unless the demands of the allies are accepted Germany will have gone scot-free.

Essentially economic is the issue of reparations and it should have been settled by trained economists. Instead, it has been a football of British and French politics for two years, while the Germans have been endeavoring to play the liberal opinion of the world against the exactions by France.

The Germans have had thruout the controversy the better of economic argument, but they have been at a grave disadvantage because no one trusts them and nobody quite believes that they are acting in good faith, even when they are acting in good faith. That is the price they are paying for the devious diplomacy that they pursued previous to the war and that they erected into a system during the war.

In the light of what occurred after that fateful day in August of 1914, Germany has lost the confidence and respect of the other nations of the earth for the most part. Only an honest effort at atonement will in any manner restore her to an honorable place among nations.

MISS LIMA: Clara Smith Hamon should go behind a screen instead of on one.

BETTER SIDEWALKS

HEARKENING to suggestions from the better sidewalks committee of the Chamber of Commerce, it is noted that numerous owners of property in the business section of the city, in lieu of constructing new walks, have had men at work with mallet and chisel, roughing up stone where time and the action of shoe leather passing to and fro rendered the surface so smooth as to be a menace, especially during time of rain.

In other instances it is noted that the owners of the walks have had rough edges chiseled down, uneven joints removed and in places where walks have been given attention it is again possible for pedestrians to walk in safety without the necessity of keeping eyes focused downward to avoid the danger of stumbling.

What has been done is commendable, but unfortunately those whose walks are in the most dangerous condition have utterly failed, refused or neglected to act on the request made by the better sidewalks committee, backed by the Chamber of Commerce. In some instances, owners of walks that need attention badly, are members of the civic organization that is standing for progress in Lima.

In various ways the attention of the owners of the walks referred to has been directed to them and the urgent need of action pointed out, but nothing has been done. This is not a good example for others. As a man is known by the company he keeps, so also is a city known by the condition of its sidewalks. Lima is perhaps no better or no worse than the average city in the matter of upkeep of pavements, but it is an admitted fact that there is plenty of room for improvement.

A Chamber of Commerce is an impotent thing when citizens fail to cooperate and doubly so when members of the organization are included in the number. Lima ought to have sidewalks about which no one need complain.

REPAVING MAIN-ST

THERE is an old and time-tried saying, not always proven infallible, that the third time is the charm. However, council apparently believes in it, for at the meeting of that body held Monday night legislation was adopted for the repaving of Main-st.

It is recalled that similar action was taken on at least two previous occasions. Twice the hopes of the people were carried up to a high point on this proposition and then rudely dashed to earth. With enthusiasm that was of a commendable character, interested citizens petitioned council for the improvement of the main thoroughfare of the city.

Each time the city lawmaking body decided on improvement, somebody came along and threw a wrench in the gear of the municipal machinery and stopped it. An investigation disclosed that signatures appearing on petitions for improvement, later united in a remonstrance against improvement. Under the circumstances, council was all at sea. Endeavoring to give the people what they wanted, council was in a dilemma, with petitions and remonstrances.

The fight was not so much against the improvement as it was to decide on the material to be used. Activity among salesmen of paving material bore its fruit. Continued delay and hope deferred in the matter of the improvement of Main-st finally decided council to forget all about the contending elements and proceed with legislation. Ignoring objectors and determining upon an improvement that is altogether necessary.

It is regrettable that the plan adopted by council does not include that portion of Main-st from the P. Ft. W. & C. Railroad to the Erie railroad, but half a loaf is better than nothing at all. Consequently, ordering the street repaved from the Pennsylvania railroad to the public square will be getting a start at least.

Council should now be on guard to prevent anyone from clogging the machinery. Repairing of Main-st is a proposition so essential as to brook no further interference.

JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

SACRIFICE

There is no easy way to serve.
This life is one of sacrifice
With courage and with steady nerve,
For conquest each must pay the price.

Who asks must willing be to give,
For friendship man must play the friend.
There is no royal way to live,
On service all man's joys depend.

Skill is a gift which man acquires,
By patient practice day by day;
And he who stops because he tires,
Soon falls behind along the way.

Time grants us what we gladly earn,
And gives to every man his due,
But he who takes must, in his turn,
Stand up and play the giver, too.

Not to the drowsy lanes of ease
Are fame or fortune to be found,
But on the hills of drudgeries
And on the rough and stony ground.

How much of self will you bestow?
How do you meet the sterner tasks?
How far for conquest will you go?
These are the questions greatness asks.

What the Stars Predict

This is not a lucky day.
There is an indication that
There will be large crops thruout
The West during the coming summer, but certain kinds of fruits,
which grow in Eastern states,
fall under the influence of unkindly stars.

This is not a good rule of the stars under which to sign contracts or enter into agreements regarding real estate.
A foreign envoy may grow very popular before the autumn.
Wiser and more modest fashions will prevail in dress and manners in the near future.

Persons whose birthday this is, should be careful to run no risks during the coming year. They should prosper financially if they use caution in making investments.

Children born today are likely to be very careless, and so lose the advantages which they gain by being unusually gifted. They will probably be resourceful and strong minded.

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

PRIVATION IN VITAMIN
Infants, children and adults frequently suffer from privation in the midst of plenty. The diet may be ample in ordinary caloric or fuel value for the nutrition of the individual according to the best available method of estimating nutritive values, yet fail to furnish an adequate something which is indispensable for perfect nutrition, growth and health. That something has been tentatively termed vitamin, altho no one has isolated or chemically identified any particular substance as a vitamin. Physiologists have arrived at a deduction, not a conclusion, that there are at least three groups or types of vitamins: (1) Fat-soluble vitamin, (2) Water-soluble A and (3) Water-soluble B vitamins.

In some parts of the United States cattle cannot be kept in good healthy condition unless the forage is improved by fertilization of the soil. In Victoria cattle raised on certain pasture land develop paralysis and other infirmities which can be prevented or cured by proper soil fertilization. Which reminds us that the problem of human nutrition goes back to the chemistry of the soil from which our food is derived. Even such a food as cow's milk probably varies within wide margins in vitamin content with varying kinds of feed. Fresh raw milk is generally recognized as an anti-scorbutic food (prevents outright or slight forms of scurvy). Yet milk from cows which were fed for three weeks with fodder without vitamins was found devoid of the anti-scorbutic factor; and Dr. Alfred F. Hess of New York, one of the foremost authorities on the subject, tells us that such facts raise the question whether the milk of stall fed animals in winter is a well-balanced or complete food. He further observes that human milk varies in vitamin content according to the woman's food. Every physician knows the harm often done when nursing mothers, influenced by legendary notions, deny themselves this and that valuable fresh vegetable, relish or fruit because some gossip opines it will harm the baby at the breast. In the winter months the lack of fresh vegetables, relishes and fruits among the poorer people in cities probably renders the food of the nursing baby unsatisfactory in vitamin content, even tho it be adequate as to fat, sugar, protein and mineral content.

Scurvy, rickets, pellagra, beri-beri (a form of multiple neuritis occurring in certain tropical countries,) and xerophthalmia or keratomalacia (a dryness and scalliness of the eyes), are by no means the only conditions attributable to a lack of vitamins in the diet. Various defects of growth and nutrition not so clearly defined as the commonly unrecognized in their true character must be ascribed to deficiencies of the diet in these essential factors, regardless of the ample food values as computed in the ordinary way. Among the less definitely recognized conditions which are probably due to vitamin-deprivation are impaired vision or night blindness, certain cases of ordinary neuritis, impaired conditions of the skin, hair, nails, softening and decay of the teeth, some cases of unaccountable loss of appetite and emaciation, some cases of anemia, underweight, and so-called "neurasthenia."

More on this subject will follow.

Charm of Motherhood

THERE are many homes once childless that now are blessed with healthy, happy children, because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored the mother to a healthy, normal physical condition.

The following letters give the experience of two young women and prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Chicago, Ill.—"I was always tired, my head always ached, and my back ached until I could hardly stand the pain. I doctored for years, and the doctor said nothing but an operation would help me, and that I could not have children. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles of it and it helped me wonderfully, and I now have a fine baby boy, thanks to what your medicine did for me in restoring my health. I can highly recommend the Compound to all women who suffer from female ills."—Mrs. Wm. R. Riss, 304 Willow St., Chicago, Ill.

Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a very nervous condition, was irregular, and could not have any children. I took doctor's medicine without success, and he advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon felt benefitted by its use, became regular, and now we have a fine baby girl after having been married nine years. I am always glad to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends who suffer from such troubles."—Mrs. H. B. Helm, 330 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.

"Half a Chance" Good Vehicle
For Mahlon Hamilton—
Orpheum Stock

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
Norma Talmadge's next picture under Herbert Brenon's direction is to be "The Wonderful Thing," an adaptation by Clara Bradley and Halsey in which Jean Egels appeared in New York recently. Work on the production started at the Joseph M. Schenck plant. It is Mr. Brenon's first venture into the realm of light comedy. Emotional dramas and melodramas have long been his forte. To wit "The Passion Flower," which has scored a sensation at the Regent Theatre and which has been hailed as one of the season's most artistic achievements. Also "War Brides" in which Norma made her debut into the cinema world was an emotional drama. "The Lone Wolf," "The Sign on the Door," the latter which Miss Talmadge has just completed, are strong in their melodramatic appeal but in the long category of his contributions to the screen. Mr. Brenon has never essayed a subject in the view which runs thru the Bradley-Halsey play. It is a far cry from a "Passion Flower" to a Jacqueline for, as the latter Miss Talmadge has a sprightly, vivacious role, strong in its contrast to the tragic intensity of "Acacia," the Benavente heroine. A strong cast is being assembled in support of the star for "The Wonderful Thing." This production marks Mr. Brenon's third since his affiliation with Mr. Schenck upon his return from Europe. The adaptation of Channing Pollock's successful play "The Sign on the Door" has not yet been scheduled for release.

"Half a Chance"
WITHOUT the more or less convincing work of Mahlon Hamilton, the production of "Half a Chance" wouldn't be worth a hurray. For despite the fact that the story is an interesting one and contains the makings of a splendid drama, it is of the vintage when ladies wore long dresses and their hair in a profusion of curls and puffs. But—

The story takes Mr. Hamilton and gives him a really splendid part to play. He's a sudden delirious, who is "framed" for a murder he never committed. Being a nobody, he is convicted and sent up but, with the aid of a pal he jumps from the boat which is taking him to San Quentin, is picked up by a passing steamer and set to work as a stoker.

It happens that Judge Wray (who had convicted him) has a daughter on board the vessel, and when the ship is wrecked it is the fugitive, Sailor Burke, who rescues the little girl, placing her safely in the boat with her relatives. For which act he is rewarded by being pushed back into the sea. Next he is cast upon an island, his only companion being a little dog which he had befriended while on board the destroyed ship. From the hull of a schooner washed upon the island, he finds huge boxes of law books and—

He becomes a great lawyer, finds the real culprit and after many knocks and reverses wins the judge's daughter. (The intervals between scenes are skipped over joyously and most of the important things are left to your imagination. You never know what caused the shipwreck—how the others were saved—how Sailor Burke left the desert island and got his start in life—nothing. It's so much easier for you to use your head.

Well, as was stated before, Hamilton makes "Half a Chance" a picture of interest, heart throbs, and subsequent enjoyment—for many. It suggests, however, many encounters with the scissors, or else it is poor projection that makes it hop around like that. The supporting cast is amateurish and the subtitles are ordinary. Outside of that, it's a nice picture and you, my dear, may just love it!

At the Lyric today and until Thursday.

"The Country Boy"

A STORY that is entirely different from anything the North Bros. Stock company has presented during its engagement at the Orpheum theatre, is being shown at that theatre this week. This is "The Country Boy," a rural drama that should please the majority of playgoers.

Because there is no program available, the characters cannot be made known. However, Miss Dainty, the leading lady, and Mr. Richards, the leading man, are each seen excellent character portrayals, while the acting of Bud, the country youth who aspires to become wealthy via the office boy route is one of the funniest and best things about the entire production.

The story? Well, a city girl loves a country boy, but the city girl's dad objects, forgetting that he once was a country boy himself. The villain, who seeks to destroy the wealthy father, also seeks to marry the daughter, but the villain, it seems has a wife, who is ready to divulge a dark secret concerning his past if he dares marry her (the wealthy girl, not the wife.)

But the country boy goes away, acquires an education and a large sum of money and the whole thing works out just like you want it.

Each characterization is all that could be desired; the touches of humor are frequent and well done. Of course, little things like falling scenery and missed cues are bound to occur at the initial performance, but they make no difference in your subsequent enjoyment of the piece.

"The Country Boy" is refreshing and well-acted, from every point of view.

Faurot—Ed Wynn Carnival

Ed Wynn and his Carnival will be a welcome announcement to Lima Theatregoers. The Perfect Fool is coming back for a return engagement with nearly a brand new company, new scenery and many new surprises. Saturday matinee and night, May 7th, is the date and the Faurot Opera House is the place. This mere announcement has served to create no end of interest amongst local theatregoers who remember the splendid entertainment from last year. The mall orders to date are the largest of the season and assures Ed Wynn and his Carnival of even bigger patronage than he had on his first visit. The Company is playing this week at the Davidson Theatre, Milwaukee, and goes direct from Lima to the New Detroit Opera House, Detroit, for the week following.

Chagrins Falls Mayor Arms 50
Deputies for Race Track

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Fifty armed deputies recruited by Mayor George L. Burton, of Chagrins Falls, left here for the Chagrins Falls race track this morning for the purpose of preventing betting on the running track races which start there this afternoon. Hostile actions on the part of some residents of Chagrins Falls favorable to sport which resulted in the "egging" of deputies Sunday, led Mayor Burton to order his men to come armed. Officials of the race course insisted this morning they expected to follow the usual policy in regard to placing wagers, thru pari mutuels machines and that they had the law behind them.

Mayor Burton is equally insistent that the practice is against the state gambling laws and says that he will enforce his orders to prevent gambling no matter what the cost.

All members of Lima Council No. 528, S. B. A., are requested to meet in Eagle hall, Wednesday, for initiation of candidates. Entertainment and refreshments will follow.

Shares of Swift & Company are widely distributed. The map shows the number of shareholders in each state and has been dotted to indicate the proportionate distribution.

Who is Swift & Company?

Swift & Company is not a one man or one family affair. It is a company owned by more than 40,000 people scattered over the face of the globe—forty thousand shareholders with voting powers and a share in the risks and profits of the business.

Most of the forty thousand live here in the United States. But some of them live in France, some in England, others in the Philippines, Hawaii, Alaska.

13,000 of them are women.

Nearly 14,000 of them are employees.

The average individual holdings are small—about 37 shares apiece.

No one person or family owns a majority of the stock.

In fact, it would take 900 of the largest shareholders pooled together to vote 51 per cent of the stock!

These shareholders are the men and women whose money, in the form of capital, makes Swift & Company possible.

They are jealous of the character and reputation of their organization, proud of what it is doing, proud to have a part in supplying to the world such products as Swift's Premium Ham and Bacon, Brookfield Sausage, Silverleaf Brand Pure Lard, Wool Soap, Swift & Company's fresh meats, etc.

The executives of Swift & Company maintain the high standards of these products as an imperative duty not only to the 40,000 shareholders, but to the public.

A new portrait of the Queen of Romania

This is a new and hitherto unpublished portrait of Queen Marie of Roumania. She is considered the most beautiful of all Europe's women in royal circles. It is reported that she contemplates making a tour of this country some time this year.

In celebration of her eighth birthday anniversary, Grace Ashburn was hostess to a group of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ashburn, W. Kibby-st, Saturday afternoon. At the conclusion of a happy afternoon the guests were invited to the dining room where a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Ashburn, assisted by Mrs. William Welser and Mrs. George Pfingst, Wapakoneta. A large birthday cake containing eight lighted pink candles centered the table, while pink and white nut baskets were presented as favors.

Guests included Betty Ziakan, Mary Falk, Marjorie Lynch, Alice Rhine, Helen Mummaugh, Alvin Maugh, Alvin Gallo, Leola McCurdy, Clara Wilkin, Margaret Miller, Pearl Wilkin, Margaret Dilling, Marie Ebner, Dorothy Lynch, Dorothy Bechtel, Audrey Geurwer, Madeline Norbeck, Opal Schupp, May Blee, Irene McNama and Mary Alice Phillips.

Miss Ida M. Nihil will be united in marriage Wednesday noon to Alfred C. Patterson, Chicago, at the Episcopal church in Waupun, Wisconsin. The Rev. Frank Nihil, brother of the bride-to-be, officiating.

For the past two years Miss Nihil has been employed as rural school nurse in Allen-co receiving great commendation for her splendid work. She is a sister of Mrs. W. E. Bayly, Lakewood-ave with whom she has made her home during the two years she has been in this city.

SUGGESTIONS

Celery and almonds are often used together for a dainty salad.

Lettuce, cooked just as you would cook spinach, is delicious served with beets.

Chopped parsley added to creamed potatoes gives them an excellent flavor.

Serve small sausage with roast chicken to add to the flavor.

Before straining split pea soup add half a can of tomatoes. This gives a deliciously different flavor.

To heat milk properly it should be heated over boiling water.

To remove rust spots from white goods dampen with lemon juice and hold over the spot of a boiling tea kettle. If it does not disappear with the first application repeat.

Cored apples are delicious stuffed with walnuts, sprinkled with sugar and cinnamon and baked.

Potatoes will bake more quickly, have a better flavor and instead of shrinking up fill the skins to the full if rubbed with dripping before baking.

Use apple juice and sugar cooked with a little lemon juice to coat the apples used in a tart.

SPRING SUITS

By MERCEDES DEVRIES-SCHMIT
And now let us turn our attention to the Spring suit. Every single day brings us a new and most often charming version of the 1921 models.

It seems to me that the sensible, conservative, severe-looking English tailored suit is "passe." We see now and we welcome the striking "courtiers" creations. Parisian suits are essentially feminine and, for this reason, so becoming to most of us.

In these imported models the skirts are decidedly longer—mind you, I don't say long—but longer.

Some suits, many of them, are beautifully embroidered. Lovely wonderful patterns appear. A beautiful dark blue suit has a motif of triangles worked in tarnish gold thread. Lattice work of squares covers sometimes the entire surface of the material. Many of the new jackets reach almost down to the very bottom of the skirt, while others, on the other hand, are quite short. The redingote with its semi-fitted lines is also in evidence, as they say in Paris, "il y en a pour tous les goûts."

REMOVABLE COLLARS

Very smart the large removable cape collars made of the material itself. These short capes, very popular last season, proved so becoming and practical that many elegantes insist on adopting their renewed success.

The skirts of the new taillores are all simple and almost always absolutely plain—if there is any trimming it is to be found on the jacket.

Very smart the new models of crepe de chine. One of the most charming creations designed this season is of gray crepe de chine trimmed with dull silver embroidery. The skirt has narrow pin tucks on each side. The jacket is trimmed with the same fine pin tucks and belted with a fancy silver girdle. The sleeve is long and narrow and is trimmed with a small cuff of crepe satin, this same crepe satin forms the flat collar and the revers of the jacket.

A CHAIN BELT

Another model is made of blue polart twill. The coat simulates triangles by an all-over embroidery of black chenille silk, while the skirt is absolutely plain, showing the new circular lines so much in evidence just now. The sleeves, rather narrow at the top, show a tendency to widen from the elbow down to the wrist.

A chain of heavy steel forms the girdle. With this suit is worn a huge jabot of crepe lace.

A very new tailleur which seems to take its inspiration from Persia is made in champagne gabardine. The jacket is cut with sharply flaring skirts and is trimmed with yellow and brown crepe braid. The upper part of this jacket is exceedingly snug and fastens in the middle of the front with self-covered buttons. This model is decidedly youthful, altho a bit eccentric.

A black crepe marocain costume, trimmed with an exceedingly narrow band of gray astrakhan edging collar, cuffs and hip pockets, is one of the most distinctive Spring taillores. The lining of the ultra chic suit is fashioned of crepe orange satin.

And now a word of advice. Remember, before being tempted to buy a beige or a gray suit, no matter how smart and becoming it may be, that navy blue, our old standby, ever-faithful friend, is by far the most satisfactory color if real service and wear are to be expected of the tailored suit.

No Spring wardrobe will be complete without the popular canton crepe frock. It is all the rage just now.

Black crepe lace makes delightful restaurant dresses.

SEES APPAREL AS EXPRESSION OF PERSONALITY

(By SUSIE SMART)

TO WHOM shall we attribute the better judgment in regard to the propriety of the present decrees of Dame Fashion, Mary Garden or Mary Pickford? These two foremost Marys in the country, who expressed their views on this subject in the Monday edition of The Lima News are at variance.

Mary Pickford, the most popular and best loved woman in the movies, scorns the present fashions—the short skirts, low necked dresses and cob web hosiery. Mary Garden, America's foremost prima donna, believes the short skirts, thin hosiery and low cut dresses to be extraordinary style advancements for the health of women.

Which of these is correct in her beliefs is very difficult to decide because every woman has her own ideas in regard to the present day styles and usually each will conform to them.

Whether the present day styles are proper or improper is a matter for each and every woman to decide for herself. She can see herself as others see her.

To me clothes are simply an expression of the personality of the wearer.

The styles of today as very chic and attractive and as Mary Garden says, are extraordinary advancements for the health of women. All very well, of course, but women must exercise a little judgment and common sense in the matter of proper dress for the street and business as well as that for evening wear and society functions.

Girls who go to work early in the morning clad in silks and satins, fancy stockings and high heeled slippers are not attired properly for business and cannot acquire a business like spirit and do justice to their work, because they do not "look the part."

As to cosmetics, both Marys agree on this subject, advising against the use of them. If one can look her best without the use of cosmetics, she is indeed very fortunate. I can see no real harm in the use of cosmetics, providing they are used with discretion and sparingly. There are many women who have pale, sallow, almost ghastly complexions and the use of a little rouge improves their looks greatly, giving them a more youthful appearance and very often concealing a tired, worn out expression.

Again I will say, tho, that dress is a matter of one's own personal opinion. If a woman thinks the styles of today are proper; if she feels perfectly at ease when in the presence of the most fastidious in dress and if she is not bothered with a "pricking conscience," then let her be one of Dame Fashion's obedient and obliging slaves.

Dear Miss Smart:
I am a young married woman. My husband has been unable to secure employment for five months, so I was forced to take up a position as housekeeper in a motherless home with my two young children. I agreed to work for small wages but have not received any pay for two months, as my employer refuses to pay. I left. How can I compel him to pay this money? I was employed in a different city.

MRS. W.
If the money which is due you is under $100 you should take your case to a justice court in the city in which you were employed. If, however, the amount due you is over $100, the case should be taken to the common pleas court in the city where the service was rendered.

Dear Miss Smart:
Recently I met a young man whom I know and spoke to him. He refused to speak to me, cannot understand why he refused to do this, as I did nothing to offend him. How shall I treat him in the future?

DOROTHY
Greet him just the same as you have been accustomed to. It seems unlikely that the young man ignored

THE KILLER

BY STEWART EDWARD WHITE

I turned back to the girl opposite me and looked her over carefully. Her lips were compressed, her nose wide, her level eyes unsmiling. She spoke hurriedly in her low, sweet voice:

"Oh, I am so distressed! This is all my doing! I should have known better!"

I interrupted her, decisively. "I visited this ranch the first time out of curiosity, and tonight because I knew that I'd have to hit first to save my own life. You had no influence on me in either case."

"You thought this was my room—"

"I wrote you it was," she countered, swiftly.

"I wanted to see you solely and simply that I might find out how to get at Hooper."

"Very well," she assented in her repressed tones.

"What does he intend to do with us?"

She looked at me straight, eye to eye.

"In the morning he will kill you—unless you can contrive some thing."

"True," I agreed. "And yourself; will he kill you, too?"

"He will not. He does not dare!" she cried, proudly with a flash of the eyes. "You will understand better if I tell you who I am."

"You are his deceased partner's daughter; and everybody thinks you are in Europe," I stated.

"How in the world did you know that?" It is true. I embarked three months ago on the Limited for New York intending to go on a long trip to Europe. I took no companion.

I felt quite able to take care of myself at the last moment Mr. Hooper boarded the train. He persuaded me to stop over for a few days to decide some matters. You know, since my father's death I am half owner.

We came out to the ranch, and talked matters over quite normally, but when it came time for my departure, I was not permitted to leave.

Soon found I was permitted conversation with two men only, named Ramon and Antonio.

"Why do you figure he did this?" I don't know why; but I feel that he is sane enough. He is inconceivably cruel and domineering. He will not tolerate a living thing about the place that will not or cannot take orders from him. I believe he would kill a man as quickly who stood out even for a second against him here.

That is why I say he will kill you, I really believe he would do it."

"So do I," I agreed, grimly.

"Do you know a man named Brower Artie Brower?"

I don't think I ever heard of him."

I lit a second cigarette and stood stony. Cortez breathed hard beside me. The girl watched me from under her level brows, all the while that air of controlled restraint.

"I've got it," I said at last. "Part of our father and Hooper split partnership a while back. Hooper took his share entirely in cash; I, then, took his probably part in cash, but certainly all of the stock and cattle. Your father dies before the papers relating to this partnership are recorded. Nobody knew of those papers except your father and Hooper. So if Hooper were to destroy those papers, he'd still have the cash that had been paid him, and an equal share in the property. That plain?"

"Perfectly," she replied, calmly. "Why didn't he destroy them?"

"Because they had been stolen by me," I answered. "I asked you about an ex-jockey of Hooper's."

"Let's Hooper came through Proter would record the papers."

"Where do I come in?"

"If you were to die your interest in this property would go to Hooper."

"I thought it would go to the state."

"I bet the old original partnership between your father and Hooper provides that in case of the extinction of one line, the other will inherit. It's a very common form of partnership in a new country like this. There is no doubt in my mind that he has intended from the first to kill you, because by that he would get possession of the whole property."

"I cannot believe it!" she cried. "Isn't the incentive enough? Think carefully, and answer honestly: don't you think him capable of it?"

"Yes—I suppose so," she admitted, reluctantly, after a moment. She gathered herself as after a shock.

"Why hasn't he done so? Why has he waited?"

I told her of the situation as it concerned Brower. While the dissolution of partnership papers still existed and might still be recorded, such a murder would be useless. For naturally the dissolution abrogated the old partnership agreement. The girl's share of the property would, at her demise intestate, go to the state. That is, provided the new papers were ever recorded.

"Then I am safe until—" she began.

"Until he negotiates or otherwise settles with Brower. Until he has destroyed all evidence."

"Then everything seems to depend on this Brower," she said, knitting her brows anxiously. "Where is he?"

I did not answer this last question. My eyes were riveted on the door knob which was slowly, almost imperceptibly, turning.

The intruder was evidently at great pains not to awaken the guard. A fraction of an inch at a time the door opened. A wild-haired, wild-eyed head inserted itself cautiously through the crack. The girl's eyes widened in surprise and, I imagine, a little in fear.

"It's so darn complete!" I gasped, answering the girl's horrified look of inquiry. "Miss Emory, allow me to present Mr. Artie Brower."

Brower at once came to me.

"Have you got it with you?" he whispered, feverishly.

"It's all right. I can fix you up. Untie me first," I replied.

An instant later Tim Westmore, the English groom attached to the Morgan stallion, came cautiously through the door, which he closed behind him. Brower looked up and nodded vaguely. Westmore glanced at us all curiously, pushed Brower one side, and most expeditiously untied the knots. I turned to perform a like office for Miss Emory. But Brower was by now frantic. He seized my arm and fairly shook me. He was rapidly losing all control and caution.

"Let him have it, sir," urged Westmore.

"He sneaked in on me at dark, sir," he told me, "on foot. Him and me were old pals, and he wanted to ask me about things. He told me he had left his horse tied a mile or so down the road. Then a while back orders came to close down, air tight. There are guards placed. That made him uneasy. He told me then he was a hop fiend. I got uneasy, too. If he came to the worst I might have to tie and gag him. I know how they are."

Forceful Letter of Rev. Damron Recommends Nerv-Worth Highly

Proctorville, Ohio, Minister's Letter: Tells Impressive Story of Benefits Received by Himself and His Wife

"My nerves were so racked that I could not sleep until after midnight, and I would almost jump out of bed," said Rev. Damron in a letter written some time ago. "After taking half a bottle of Nerv-Worth, I could sleep almost as well as when I was a boy. My wife had rheumatism in her hip joints so that she could not stoop down and rise up without help, and her system was run down and she was not able to do any work without great pain. After taking 2 bottles of Nerv-Worth, the rheumatism had disappeared, and her blood is as good as when she was a child, and she weighs more than she has for 30 years. I recommend Nerv-Worth as the greatest remedy that I have ever found. I cannot praise it as it deserves." The above is but one of the many weighty statements from one of the ministry. Such statements offer the most conclusive proof, and nothing further by way of explanation need be added to them. Give Nerv-Worth a trial, and if your first trial bottle does not prove satisfactory, your money will be refunded. Be sure to get the genuine in the large round bottle.

Nerv-Worth is sold and recommended by Hunter's Drug Store, Lima; C. M. Young, Van Wert; Gasson's Drug Store; Lints Drug Store, Kenton; Powell's Pharmacy, Bellefontaine; Minzel's, Defiance.

EXHIBITION GAME CALLED OFF WHEN RAIN FLOODS FIELD

DECATUR, Ill.—Rain and a wintry temperature stopped the Reds and the famous Staley team from clashing at Staley Field Monday afternoon, much to the disappointment of 4,000 fans. The Reds arrived from St. Louis just before noon and were met at the station by a delegation of prominent citizens.

It was very cold, but the Staley people had advertised the game widely and were determined to play if possible, but their plans were blocked by a chilling rain, which started to fall right after lunch and continued without intermission for the rest of the afternoon.

So anxious were the local people to stage the contest that they sent machines to the Reds' hotel for the team at 2 o'clock in the midst of the downpour and drove the boys out to the park, but when Manager Moran got one look at the rain-soaked and muddy field, and felt the breeze which was blowing from the north, he ordered the players to embark at once and return to their hotel.

FANS ARE ANXIOUS.
In spite of the weather, several hundred fans had assembled at the yard to see the big leaguers. On any kind of a day the attendance would have been a record breaker for this vicinity. The local club is an industrial team representing a large starch factory and has a big following here.

Its manager is Joe McGinnity, the famous iron man of the New York Giants in the days when Matty was in his prime. Joe is a thorough pitcher, but he has developed a fast club, and really seemed to give our boys quite a battle.

GO TO SPRINGFIELD.
The Reds remained here over night and will run over to Springfield Tuesday morning in the hope of being able to play there. Chances are gloomy, as it still is raining hard. Leo Seifert will pitch if a game is played, with Bill Hardesty behind the bat.

Manager Moran will send Pitchers Rube Lugo and Marquard, Catchers Wingo and Hackbush and First Baseman Jake Daubert right through to Chicago on the day train Tuesday morning, so that they can get a good night's rest before the important series with the Cubs, which begins on Wednesday.

Rixey will pitch the opening game against Evans' crew, with Lugo, Marquard and Henton to follow. Daubert is sent along with the pitchers and catchers in order to give him a day's rest, for he has been playing under the handicap of a lame side, but refuses to get out of the line-up for even one day.

WOMEN'S PIN MEET GETS STARTED

CLEVELAND — Twenty-four doubles and a like number of single events are on today's program of the fourth annual tournament of the Women's National Bowling Association. Chicago, Milwaukee, Dayton, Indianapolis and Kansas City bowlers will participate.

Toledo and Milwaukee five women events are on tonight's program. There were no changes in the standing of the leaders yesterday. The Benzinger-Walshs of Chicago led the quintets with a score of 2278. Garwood-Greenwald, of Cleveland led the doubles with 996 and Mrs. L. Wagner, of Cleveland led the singles with 642.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

YESTERDAY'S HERO — Josh Billings. The Brown's catcher singled in the 13th inning and drove over the run that beat the Tigers 7 to 6.

Pratt's double and a single by Henthix beat the Yankees 2 to 1 after Ruth had tied the score in the ninth with his sixth homer.

Long George Kelly poked out his seventh home run and a double, helping the Giants to beat the Braves 8 to 1.

Brooklyn made only five hits but three of them came in the ninth inning, and the Pirates were beaten 4 to 3. It was the 11th straight win for Brooklyn.

Joey Dugan's home run and Perry's fine pitching helped the Athletics beat Washington 6 to 1.

Martin's wildness and timely hitting by the Pirates cost the Cubs a game at 4 to 3.

ELECT JAMES CAPTAIN AT CENTRAL

"Jimmy" James, Central H's star guard, was elected captain of next year's basketball team, Monday, by the eight letter men. James should make a decided success as captain. He has only two other letter men back, Mitchell and Devos, a strong team should be formed out of the excellent material that is in the school.

James has had extensive basketball experience. This last season was his third season as a regular man. He played two years on the strong Ada team before he came to Lima and this season he was one of the best guards that Central has ever had.

PLAYS GUARD POSITION
He plays a cunning guard and was responsible for a number of Central's field goals this year. On the defensive, he is a stone wall and can stop the fastest scoring machine.

At times his playing tends toward the spectacular but this was greatly eliminated in the latter part of last season and will undoubtedly disappear next year. He is a fighter and full of pep and will be able to keep his men fighting all the time. The outlook for Central is not as bright next year as it was at the beginning of this season, due to the loss of five letter men and the harder schedule that Central is forming for this year. The fans are confident, however, that with James as captain the team will come out on top and hang up a better record than the team did in the past season. To do this they will have to win all their regular games.

SALE OF PFEFFER FLATFY DENIED

NEW YORK — Charles Ebbetts, president of the Brooklyn ball club, denied today that Jeff Pfeffer, his fast ball pitcher, had been traded to the Cardinals.

Rickey didn't offer enough, but we may make a deal next week," he said.

St. Louis is said to have offered Milton Stock and a cash sum for the big pitcher.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease laid him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of countless visits to the doctor, that no one can be freed from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid, are removed from the blood. With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system. He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspaper. Two Hunter's Drug Store, Thompson Drug Store, International Drug Store, Public Drug Store has been appointed agent for Allen's in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money in the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.

GEORGE KELLY HITS 'EM FARTHER THAN RUTH

(By HENRY L. FARRELL)
(United Press Staff Correspondent).
NEW YORK—"That boy Kelley sure can sock."

Take the word of Mike Donlin for it. Also take his record of seven home runs in 15 games as evidence.

Donlin, the old idol of the Polo Grounds, who now "fields" behind the footlights, saw the skyscraper first baseman of the Giants pole his seventh yesterday high up into the left field bleachers.

"Kelley hits 'em farther than Ruth and he's getting just as hard to fool," Donlin said before the Braves and the Giants took the field.

"He's a sucker for a fast ball. They all had his number last year. Wait until the pitchers get in mid-season form and watch him wilt," a brother actor put in.

Watson's first delivery to the new home run king was a fast one up around the shoulders.

Kelley slammed it almost over the left field fence.

"Yes, he's a mark for a fast ball," Donlin came back.

"Well, he can't hit a curve ball. We all know that," the other retorted.

Mr. Scott was pitching then and he broke out with a wide grin when he made Kelley swing foolishly twice at a low curve ball his second time at the bat.

He fe dthe long one another curve and he smashed it clear to the center-field fence, but they were laying back for him and it was only good for a double.

"I guess he's a bum on a curve ball, too," from Donlin.

The battle between Kelley and Babe Ruth for home run honors not only has New York by the ears, but it is easily the sensation of the young season.

Many of the metropolitan fans who tore shirts off each other's backs and caused a carnage in straw hats last year paying adoration to Babe Roth, have another god now in Kelley.

IS BABE RUTH IN HAT BUSINESS?

NEW YORK — (Special)—"Ever since Babe Ruth began his home-run records our hat business has picked up over normal each spring and summer," says the proprietor of a well-known hat store.

"There may be hundreds of hats involved in each home run made by Babe."

It is rumored along Broadway that new hat stores are opening like bottles of home-made cognac in the vicinity of the Polo grounds.

Every time Babe leans against the pill and knocks it into someone's back yard in Cairo, Egypt, the inmates of the grandstand go dippy and break every hat in sight as an offering to the idol of the ball lot. Whether or not Babe Ruth is backing the hat business is hard to determine. But if not—why not?

SUPREME TURF NAGS ENTERED TO RACE IN BIG DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — With the arrival today of several thorough breeds that have been nominated for the $50,000 added Kentucky Derby which is to be run over the Churchill Downs track here Saturday, practically all of the principal contenders for the supreme honors of the west are at the famous old track.

Several candidates arrived yesterday and the paddock is alive with trainers, attendants and others making ready for the historic classic.

Gray Lag, the Harry P. Sinclair hope, made an impressive showing on his first time out yesterday. He probably will be ridden by Jockey Earl Sands.

Star Voter, owned by Commander J. K. L. Ross, is among those expected at the Downs today. Lou Tauber probably will accompany the colt and give him his final preparation for the race.

TWO NATIONS MAY STAGE CARNIVAL

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — A proposal to have the Oxford-Cambridge composite track team come here for a meeting with a joint Yale-Harvard team on July 23 has been called to Captain B. G. D. Rudd, of the Oxford team, by Major Fred W. Moore, graduate treasurer of athletics at Harvard.

The message which was drawn up in conference with Yale athletic authorities said there was no objection by Harvard and Yale to the Englishmen meeting the Cornell and Princeton teams subsequently.

TWO HEAVYWEIGHT BOXERS KAYOED

PHILADELPHIA — Two short stop heavyweight bouts were staged here last night when Fred Yale-Harvard team on July 23 has been called to Captain B. G. D. Rudd, of the Oxford team, by Major Fred W. Moore, graduate treasurer of athletics at Harvard.

OHIO FIGHTER IS SHADED IN EAST

MUTT AND JEFF—YOU CAN'T BLAME MUTT FOR CHANGING HIS MIND—

SHORT SHAVINGS

At a country dance in Alabama, when the fiddlers had resumed their bows and taken their places on the platform, the floor manager rose.

"Git yo' partners fo' a cotillion," he shouted imperiously. "All yo' ladies an' gemmen dat wears shoes an' stockings take yo' places in de middle of de room. All yo' ladies and gemmen dat wears shoes an' no stockings, take yo' places immediately behin' dem. An' yo' bar-footed crowd, yo' jest jib it roun' in de corners."

The sympathetic caller could see that things were wrong in the household.

"Your husband has been ill?" she said.

"Yes," said the worried woman. "I do my best to please him, but nothing seems to satisfy him."

"Is his condition critical?"

"Critical!" exclaimed the woman. "It's worse than critical; it's downright abusive."

A tourist while "doing" California noticed a long shanty which displayed the following sign: "Teeth yanked without a twinge." As he happened to be suffering from toothache, he entered the shanty and asked the dentist:

"Do you extract teeth without giving pain?"

"Waal, I reckon so, stranger."

"All right, pull this one out," indicating the offending molar.

The dentist whistled and in walking his assistant armed with a club.

"Now, pard," quoth the "dentist," "stun him."
